Crucible Lab 2 Overview

This Lab moves the participant group to thinking about the opportunities for collaboration within research and the specific theme for the Lab is 'your research community – your networks'. The large questions for the Lab are 'how can you collaborate with others in your research community? What are the cultural and infrastructural challenges to collaboration?'

There are Word documents and PowerPoint presentations available for this Lab.

The summary below gives an overview of the material available for this Lab in the order it is used in the programme. A detailed suggested programme is available for either a 3 day or 2 day Lab. Items marked with a '*' are a necessary part of this Crucible whether it is run over two days or three days. Items marked with a '?' are optional ones that you can run if time and budget allow.
